VOLUNTARY EEO IDENTIFICATION

Various governmental agencies require employers to maintain information on applicants pertaining to factors such as race, sex, and type of position for which an individual applies. In order to comply with these laws, the employer invites applicants to voluntarily self-identify their race, ethnicity and other information as listed below. Such self-identification is submitted on a voluntary and confidential basis, for use only in accordance with regulations and without subjecting the individual to adverse treatment. The Company believes all persons are entitled to equal employment opportunities and does not discriminate against its employees or applicants for employment because of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, veteran status, age, marital status or any other protected group status.
